History Cats: Crash arena turbo stars are set in the planet cats, the planet of aggressive cats. All of them are technologically talented engineers, but the amount of work here is so small that they can show off their talents. So they fight each other to find a good job. The war machines were created and the strongest could survive. If you are a cat on this planet, will your engineering skills help you find a job here, or become unemployed? How to play cats: Crash Arena Turbo Stars game fabrication machine, where the players of his role in a design engineer and create the most powerful devices. Your mission in this game is to defeat all enemies, to become the most potent cats planet. Before you start each match, you have two stages. Stage 1: Assembling the fighting machine, this is the most crucial stage as a result of the battle depends on your army. Each machine is composed of body, wheels, weapons and auxiliary weapons. First of all, choose the body to make the assembly of other parts. Then you choose the right type of wheel for your machine. There are two types of cake: front wheels and rear wheels. With a variety of wheels in a garage, you can customize your car to keep the best balance. If your car is overpowered, then you have given your opponent the chance to win. And finally weapons, you can choose saw blades, drill bits, or even missiles to attack the enemy. Each part of the vehicle has a certain amount of damage and a certain amount of HP, which will be displayed when you double-click it. And overall it will make your machine. But with the number of bonuses you receive during the experience, you can also upgrade each part of the car, to increase HP and attack stats. This factor is crucial because the opponents you encounter will be potent. In phase 2, you only need to select the Championship function to select the opponent to play. And when the game starts, your mission is. The machines will automatically break in and destroy each other and you can not interfere in this fight. At this point, you just sit and wait for results, isn't it? Conclusion CATS: Turbo Stars Crash Arena-style game, but property tactical gameplay incredibly fun. You will become a skilled engineer who carries the task of creating a war machine to destroy all enemies. Although the plot is somewhat violent, the experience of brings is exciting.
